Regulated Qualification Framework (RQF)

The Regulated Qualifications Framework (RQF) provides a single, simple system for cataloguing all qualifications regulated by Ofqual. Qualifications are indexed by their level and size. Levels indicate the difficulty and complexity of the knowledge and skills associated with any qualification. There are eight levels supported by three “entry levels”. Size refers to the estimated total amount of time it could typically take to study and be assessed for a qualification. Size is expressed in term of Total Qualification Time (TQT). The part of the TQT spent being taught or supervised is known as Guided Learning Hours (GLH).

Total Qualification Time (TQT) and Guided Learning Hours (GLH)

Total Qualification Time (TQT) is the number of notional hours it takes a typical learner to achieve the full qualification and is made up of two elements:

- the minimum number of Qualification Guided Learning Hours (GLH) - the number of Tutor led contact hours
- the number of hours spent on preparation, studying and the assessment that is non-guided

For example, the number of tutor-led contact hours (GLH) for a qualification is 30 and the number of hours spent by the learner (non-GLH) on preparation, studying and the assessment is 6 hours. Therefore, the Total Qualification Time (TQT) for the qualification is 36 hours.

Progression opportunities

This qualification is designed to develop leadership, facilitation, practical and teaching skills to enable learners to understand the principles and ethos of Forest School. It also enables learners to deliver Forest School programmes.

Entry requirements

It is recommended that learners have a minimum of Level 2 literacy and numeracy skills or Grade 4/C GCSE English and Maths, or equivalent.

Resource requirements

Centres should only deliver the components that they have the human and physical resources to deliver. For example, if a learner needs to demonstrate the use of tools in a specific environment, then the centre will need to have access to both the tools and the environment.

Learners are required to experience forest school therefore the equipment requirements would be typical of a Forest School setting.

Blended learning is accepted for this qualification where elements of theory are covered. Due to the nature of the qualification and its purpose, learners should spend a significant amount of the guided learning hours in the presence of their trainer/assessor in an outdoor setting.

Requirements to deliver this Qualification

To offer this qualification, centres must ensure that tutors: hold or are working towards:

- have a teaching or training qualification such as a level 3, 4 or 5 education and training qualification, PTLLS (or equivalent);
- have level 3 forest school leader accreditation;
- have a minimum of two years of experience, post qualification, leading forest school with at least one long term (ie through the seasons) programme with a variety of client groups;
- have a first aid qualification of at least 16 hours in duration which includes an outdoor element;
- have professional indemnity and public liability insurance.

In addition, the Head of Centre, Centre Contact or Curriculum contact must:

- Inform AIM Qualifications and Assessment Group of any changes in staffing associated with the delivery of these qualifications;
- hold public liability insurance.

Centres must also ensure they have in place an Internal Quality Assurance person who:

- holds or is working towards a level 4 award in internal quality assurance of assessment processes and practices
- has substantial experience of working in or assessing qualifications in the subject area
- is familiar with the assessment requirements of the qualification for which they are the internal quality assurer.

As an Awarding Organisation, we require that:

Centres should only deliver the components that they have the human and physical resources to deliver. For example, if a learner needs to demonstrate the use of tools in a specific environment, a forest school for example, then the centre will need to have access to both the tools and the environment.

Blended learning is accepted for this qualification where elements of theory are covered. Due to the nature of the qualification and its purpose, learners should spend a significant amount of the guided learning hours in the presence of their trainer/assessor in an outdoor setting.

The FSA provide further guidance for centres regarding course durations.

The minimum course durations that FSA accept are as follows:

- A 10 day course (for example operating 9 until 5 with a 30 minute lunch break)
- A 9 day course AND a mandatory delivery assessment visit for each student (The FSA consider the one-to-one contact with a student in their setting to be a very high quality form of contact)
- A 9 day course AND a further 7.5 hours of mandatory live online content

The face-to-face time FSA require for courses cannot include First Aid or Food Hygiene. Where centres also offer these aspects, FSA expect these to be offered in addition to the guided learning hours.

FSA also expect there to be breaks for well-being on each day, but these would not be included in the above calculations.
